

PAUL F. PRESTIA

Articles

1. Tying and Trademark Franchising: A look at the Developing Case Law, American Intellectual Property Law Association Quarterly Journal, Vol. III, No. 4, 1975
2. Laches and Estoppel: Old Doctrines Finding Modern Application, 1978 Patent Law Annual, Southwestern Legal Foundation
3. New Era Antitrust/Licensing Issues, Selected Legal Papers, Vol. 5, No. 1 (Page H-1), July 1987, American Intellectual Property Law Association
4. Decision Tree: Good Tool for Analysis, Les Nouvelles, Vol. 29, No. 1, March 1994, Licensing Executive Society
5. Minimizing The Risk of Willfulness In U.S. Patent Infringement Litigation, 20/20 for The Twenty First Century, A Special 20th Anniversary Commemorative Issue of I. P. Japan, 1999, Shusaku Yamamoto Patent Law Offices, Osaka, Japan
6. Is Litigation "Manageable"?, March 2002, The Philadelphia Business Journal
7. Congress Again Seems Poised to Attempt a Major Revision of U.S. Patent Law, March 2009, The Legal Intelligencer
8. Deferred Patent Examination: De Facto or De Jure?, January 2009, The Legal Intelligencer
9. Pending Cases May Decide Future of Patent Legislation, July 2008, The Legal Intelligencer
10. Patent Reform Still a Hot Topic, February 2008, The Legal Intelligencer
11. Generic Versions of Biologics: The Problem and a Possible Solution, September 2008, The Legal Intelligencer
12. Proposed Patent-Reform Bills Don't Address Elephant In the Room, June 2007, The Legal Intelligencer
13. Bipartisan Patent Reform Bill Introduced, April 2007, The Legal Intelligencer
14. Patent Law Reform, the End May Be Near, April 2007, The Legal Intelligencer
15. Federal Circuit To Revisit EchoStar and Underwater Devices, February 2007, The Legal Intelligencer

16. The Supreme Court Puts Patent Royalties in Play, January 2007, The Legal Intelligencer
17. Supreme Court Hearing Suggests Federal Circuit's Obviousness Test In Jeopardy, December 2006, The Legal Intelligencer
18. Reform the U.S. patent system? Congress, the PTO and the Supreme Court are all trying, October 2006, The Legal Intelligencer
19. Patentability: The Supreme Court May Be Taking Us Back To the Future, August 2006, The Legal Intelligencer